

Title: The anthropomorphism in selected writings of Erwin Moser

Summary:

This work should demonstrate that in the book of fable stories Der Einsame Frosch and in the book of animal fairy tales Die drei Eulen und sieben andere Geschichten from Erwin Moser was used the anthropomorphism as a building component in order to moral advice. In the first part there are introduced the genres important for this books and their the most important representatives or genres types. In the second part of this work there is the main analysis of the every particular story.

It was managed to prove that the anthropomorphism was used in order to moral advice.

Keywords:

anthropomorphism, fable, animal fairy tale, Erwin Moser